President's Report

Adrian

We have had a pretty successful year and we may actually make a profit, which would be pretty spectacular considering the previous two years. We have had third ice all through Hilary, which is unheard of in my time at ALTS. Hopefully good numbers will continue, we've booked both Wednesday and Friday for Trinity and it's down to the new committee to decide if we'll cancel, hopefully we'll have both.

Also, it is possible some of the women's team or Vikings may have more integration with ALTS, in order to boost numbers, get a higher standard of play and increase links between the clubs. Ice hockey is growing at Oxford and this increases the split between the teams. Hopefully big integration between us into the future, this is something for the future committee to work towards.

I'm really happy with the year and the turnout we've had. A big thank you to everyone on the committee for this year, and I'm looking forward to whoever takes over.

Treasurer's Report

Cameron

(The budget is from a template sent by sports federation, hence the empty cells.)

Theo's budget was a bit shit, and so far we have only spent £6500 out of our allotted £8000. However, this doesn't include the ice hire for coppers or the last few sessions, but hopefully we might break even, maybe a £500 loss.

The membership subscriptions is the money we have taken. We accidentally made a profit from coppers. For some reason we don't seem to have received a grant from the university, they have possibly given us £100. We made £100 from hoodies and we weren't budgeted for sticks but we needed them so we bought them. Theo didn't budget for insurance but I have for this year.

We are under budget at the moment but the budget remains the same for next year. I've also allowed the same amount for ice hire, but this may increase.

Budgeted for insurance and a small amount for equipment, possibly helmets? (Stephen: We're fine.) I've budgeted for quite a loss in Trinity, we'll see. Fee increase next term is in the motions. (Huw: How much do we have?) About £5000. (Adrian: The university is struggling for money, so if we group together we can demand more from sports fed.)

Secretary's Report

Justin

Nothing to report.

Social Secretary's Report

Guy

It's been a social year by ALTS standards. Committee meal in Trinity last year, pub crawl in Michaelmas got to a slow start but about 22 people showed up. A good year for ALTS. Plans for a social in 8th week this term, an email to follow.

IT Officer's Report

Joe

I've updated the website so that the calendar and news section look more up to date. Feedback forms are being used much more than before. (Adrian: one or two emails a week received). There is now also an app for the sessions, this solves the problem we had of keeping track. (Stephen: do we have a mailing list?) Yes, it's on the front page.

Proposed motions to discuss

1 Proposal to make future executive committee members pay and ensuing constitutional changes

Cameron

Add to the constitution that the “committee pay relevant club entry fees as below”. Add that the fees are set before 0th week Michaelmas each year. The fees shall not exceed $\frac{2}{3}$ of the termly cost, skate hire not included. Committee members will have it free after term is finished. (Stephen: Will it be the whole year’s fees?) Actually, this is up to the committee. (Jamie: Will the committee pay the same fee as the other officers?) Yes, but free after their term is finished. This will avoid the fee rise.

Adrian

We would rather the executives pay more than there is a fare rise for everyone. This seems fair, and they do get the reward of free ALTS afterwards.

Stephen

Is it worth setting it so that you have to pay early in each term?

Cameron

This would be a good idea if we had a policy document, but is the place for it a constitution? (Adrian: It is the treasurer’s job to chase committee fees.)

Next point is tidying and housekeeping for what the committee is described as. In paragraph 16 the committee roles will be described as “The Offices”, “The Senior Member” (discussion about who this was, it’s someone from sports federation), “Essential positions” (Adrian: including Vice Officer, previously this wasn’t in the constitution) and “Non-essential positions”.

Guy raised the point raised that there is no section in the constitution on changing the constitution. Cameron said that he chooses to gloss over this.

Cameron

Finally changed the name to “Oxford University Alternative Ice Hockey Club” (dropped the “pick-up”). (Pick-up refers to the type of ice hockey ALTS plays, clarified by Joe.)

Agreement reached that ALTS is always all capitalised.

Vote

Decided to use $\frac{2}{3}$ majority for constitutional changes, simple majority otherwise.

2 Proposal of next year's budget

Cameron asked if anyone wanted any changes to what he had proposed in his speech. Tom Langton asked for more for equipment and Cameron responded that it was a budget and you can go over it. Daniel de Wijze asked about the aforementioned grant, and Cameron said he'd like to look into it.

Adrian

The main issue of joining other teams is with the Blues. It all kicked off a few years ago, there are two teams that play in the university league at Oxford, the Blues and the Vikings. The Blues disaffiliated from the sports federation/university a few years ago for many reasons (such as they didn't want to be associated with women's team, money issues, embezzlement) so they left and sports federation now want the two rejoined. Much discussion to get everyone back on the same side, so the problem lies there, not with us.

I've said to the people who run the Vikings that we're happy to join once they're sorted. There would be a few niggles with new constitution, committee, etc. but we'll get to that as and when.

3 Proposal to collect committee fees at the start of term

Adrian suggested it is not up to us [the outgoing committee]. Tom L said that he thinks you should pay at the start of term.

Cameron

I can just add to the standing orders for the treasurer that they collect at the start of term. The phrase to be added is “The treasurer shall collect committee fees from all committee members by the end of 2nd week in each term”.

Extra motions

1 Extra tournament in Trinity

Proposed by Sean Ravenhall

I enjoyed coppers and this usually means more people coming, we have extra ice in Trinity, could we have an extra tournament in Trinity?

Stephen said that this point is often raised, but writing it in could add stress in exam term. He noted that we could do informal tournaments. Adrian added that we could try and organise it through the mailing list, Tom L suggested using a poll. Stephen noted that we have had some off format ALTS this year and we could change it depending on what is popular.

Adrian

This is the sort of thing that depends a lot on if we still have a high turn out in 2nd week next term. Things look positive now, but perhaps by the time we get to Trinity the drop off would be severe, may not be viable, but if 50/60 people are coming then it might be good.

No further action taken

2 Cut out 0th week in Hilary/Trinity

Proposed by Tom Langton

Cut out 0th week Hilary/Trinity because it was really quiet.

Stephen asked if that already happened last week, and Adrian noted that they'd already cut out 9th week as that was guaranteed full ice. Stephen said that it depends on who is back in 0th week what with collections and bops, and that we could just run Wednesday.

Cameron

Michaelmas it is definitely worth running 0th week, and perhaps not Hilary/Trinity. We could perhaps just do Friday, as it is the first week people are back. (Stephen: This is nice for regulars.)

Adrian

The figures for last year were

Wednesday 0 th Michaelmas	47
Wednesday 0 th Hilary	25
Friday 0 th Hilary	50
Friday 1 st Hilary	53

So, Friday fine, Wednesday maybe not.

Jamie and Adrian suggest getting rid of Wednesday 0th week session in Hilary and Trinity. This was brought to vote (simple majority as not constitutional).

3 What happened to the Freshers' Week President?

Asked by Caitlin Kennedy

It was established that this role was combined with the role of Publicity Officer.

4 Mandate the Health and Safety Officer to maintain the first aid box

Proposed by Theo Costain

Jamie responded that there is a first aid room at the ice rink and a small kit in the box.

No further action taken.

5 Report on looking into the possibility of a membership fee

Raised by Cameron

I was mandated to look at having a membership fee but I have decided it is infeasible. We are barely making profit anyway and there is the potential to lose money. Logistically it would be a bit of a nightmare. I would welcome people to look further at it but I don't think there's any way to sensibly do it.

No further action taken.

6 Termly committee meetings

Proposed by Joe Cridge

Can we encourage future committees to have termly meetings?

Cameron noted that Adrian calls ALTS sessions biweekly meetings. Jamie noted that we don't discuss things then though, and Joe added that if there was a meeting he would have asked for publicity money. Justin said that stuff like this could be done on the Facebook chat and Guy asked that a Facebook group be created for the committee rather than a chat as it is easier to organise stuff on a group.

Cameron

We could add to the constitution that there will be a termly committee meeting not during/after a session.

Point 14: "Meeting of members". The wording shall be:

"Termly committee meetings occur in a term where no AGM is held. These are not to occur during a session".

[break for pizza]

About to vote on the above motion.

Thomas Player

Can we amend the wording so that it explicitly specifies meetings are in Michaelmas and Trinity, as the AGM being in Hilary is in the constitution?

Cameron agreed that this could be done. New wording is:

“Termly committee meetings occur in Michaelmas and Trinity. These are not to occur during a session”.

Adrian added that he didn’t think these meetings were necessary.

7 Training sessions

Proposed by Stephen Bell

Many people have approached me saying they want to skate/stick handle better. We could run a training session on one of these, perhaps on half of the ice with a game on the other half.

Adrian wondered who would run these sessions. Stephen suggested ex hockey players or Vikings. Daniel de Wijze said you’d have to specify beforehand when they would run, but thought it was a good idea.

Theo Costain asked if a minimum skill level would be expected. Stephen responded that he thought you could teach to the level they’re at, perhaps by dividing into groups.

Adrian didn’t think it would be feasible in Michaelmas, Stephen and Tom L said perhaps Hilary or Trinity when people have found their feet, Adrian agreed.

Stephen suggested one in Michaelmas for people who want to learn, Theo suggested perhaps Friday when it’s less busy. Stephen said it may incentivise return visits, but Adrian said people may want to play games.

Molly said it could be a good idea so that people will want to stay and feel able to join in. Adrian says that people seem to generally be in favour but that it would be a lot for the next committee to organise.

Voting for new committee

President

Ben Rudling

St. Anne's fresher, Earth Sciences. I'd never skated before but have since been to every session and it's my favourite thing at Oxford. I'm a great ambassador to ALTS and organised coppers for St Anne's. I'm really committed and wouldn't run for any other committees so that I could commit. I have lots of ideas on how to take the society forwards (attending free sessions on Monday, advertise tickets for uni/professional matches, ALTS crewdate, t-shirts, discount on merchandise).

Luke Young

2nd year Maths, Keble. Been the Vice Officer so have had to fill in already and have proved I can do this at the weekly sessions. I know how Freshers' Week works and its importance for publicity and bringing in other colleges.

Questions

- Tom L: List the jobs of the President.
B: Make sure everyone's doing their job and oversee the committee.
L: Insurance forms, amendments to constitution, president must communicate well with the rest of the committee.
- Adrian: Who would ALTS crewdate?
B: Other ice hockey teams?
- Cameron: What would your one main focus be in your term?
L: Greater attendance, make sure that everyone is enjoying themselves. Also, to not make too much of a loss.
B: Try to get people to be more social with teams to avoid isolating people at the start of term.
- Guy: What is the main reason for the massive drop off after Michaelmas? How would you combat it?
B: people turning up with friends; if they are driven to other societies then this stops them coming back. By integrating with more social events this would give people a reason to return.
L: Drop off is people thinking it's not for them, teams tend to get better towards the end of Michaelmas. I don't think we can combat it but make sure numbers at the start of term are high enough so that drop off is not too damaging.

- Adrian: What is your biggest problem going to be over the next year?
- L: Could be the merging of the two teams, but other than that, coppers.
- B: Social aspects would be challenging, but if the committee are committed it is achievable.

Treasurer

Tom Langton

Physics at Keble. I did Music last year. I know how the committee works and am aware ALTS has haemorrhaged money over the last few years and I'd like to stem the flow as we don't have that much. I know how money works and how to keep track.

Sean Ravenhall

Physics at Corpus. The main problems are lack of money and lack of people. We could look at sponsorship; used to be that G&D's sponsored us, and there is a lot to sell our society. Sponsorship would essentially be free money. A video would work well to get people going. Cameron has discussed the treasury with me, I can go every week and I'm trustworthy. I really like it and don't want to see it run out of money, so would do my best.

Chris Slade

Maths fresher at Keble. ALTS is doing well this year, and I'd like to keep the momentum going. I'd try to budget more in Trinity in order to save money

Questions

- Cameron: Who do we bank with?
- C: Co-op.
- Cameron: What is an acceptable loss?
- S: A bit less than last year as we don't need sticks this year.

- T: Ideally break even.
 C: Break even too, depends on Freshers' Fair.
- Stephen: How many people do we need for ALTS to break even (Wednesday)?
 T: 53.
 S: 90.
 C: 50 on a Wednesday, 70 Friday.
 (Actual answer was 47.)
 - Stephen: How low would attendance be before you cancelled sessions?
 T: 24 people regularly.
 S: 6 teams every session is too low.
 C: Less than 20.
 - Daniel: How would sponsorship work?
 S: Previously they paid for stash and did discount cards.
 T: I think they stopped because it wasn't commercially viable, but it could be.
 C: Could look at it.
 (Adrian added that apparently they updated the till and didn't have the button anymore.)
 - Theo: How much do we spend per session? Insurance and rink hire?
 S: Insurance around £800, £200 an hour for the ice.
 C: £12.
 T: Around £120, £180 on a Wednesday.
 (Cameron and Adrian decided Tom was probably closest.)
 - Adrian: Treasurer is arguably the most work, what other commitments do you have?
 T: I'm short on time commitments other than my degree.
 C: First year maths, no other commitments.
 S: No exams for four years.
 - Cameron: How many times a week would you be willing to go to the bank?
 T: There's a limit on how often you need to go! Twice, maybe three times.
 C: Two, maybe three.
 S: As many as it takes.
 - Guy: How do you change the signatory on bank accounts?
 S: You sign the form Justin has brought.
 - Cameron: Best maths themed joke?
 Stephen: Let's vote.

St. Anne's, Modern Languages. I can send emails, and I will take my own minutes next year. [Woohoo! TP]

Questions

- Justin: What else do you think I do?
M: Scan people in and forget people's names. Do what the others say, basically you agreed to be the President's bitch.
Justin: Also, Health and Safety form, Freshers' Fair.
- Joe: I seem to remember Justin promised YouTube videos and instead we got Rickrolled. ¹ What would you do to make the emails more exciting?
M: I can do cat gifs, requests for funny videos.
- Cameron: What is your favourite Pokémon?
M: Dragonite.
- Tom Langton: How many names do you think Justin couldn't read from the Freshers' Fair sign up sheet?
M: A lot? 20?
Justin: It was 50.
- Dan: Justin delights us with his singing [!], could you?
M: I'm tone deaf.
All: So is Justin!
M: Then yes, I could.

Vice Officer

Jamie Shaw

Health and Safety Officer this year. I've been on the committee so I know how it runs, what the Vice Officer is supposed to do.

Daniel Tellett

Second year, Maths, Keble. I've been a monkey so I know how to run the sessions, organising the teams and equipment. I've been doing a similar job this year to the Vice Officer but at a lower level. I really love ALTS.

Ben Rudling

It would be good practice for being the President next year, as Luke has done this year, and a good way to get input.

Questions

- Cameron: Why didn't you run for an executive position?
J: Third year next year so I didn't want to overcommit.
D: Similar really, and also didn't want to run against my friends (although, I have ended up running against Jamie).
- Caitlin: How often do you miss ALTS and would you be willing to cycle to pick up the money box etc.?
J: I only miss it if I'm ill.
D: I rarely miss it and yes, I would pick stuff up.
B: Only missed four so far and I don't miss it if possible.

Adam Wigley

First year Physics, Corpus. Experience with first aid, been a life-guard for two and a half years so I'm used to dealing with incidents.

I have an hour of training a month so I feel like I can deal with any incidents.

Jamie Shaw

I did first aid last year and I have training and experience. I know how to do incident reports and deal with sports fed and other responsibilities. No-one died so I must have been doing something right.

Questions

- Justin: When do we actually need to notify sports fed of an incident?
A: When someone goes to hospital.
J: When there is blood on the ice.
- Tom Langton: What would you do if there was an injury?
A: Notify the rink staff and call an ambulance if necessary.
J: Assess the situation and send to hospital if necessary, write the report. Better safe than sorry.
- Joe: What would you do if someone knocked their teeth out?
A: Check there are no dangerous shards, stop bleeding and collect teeth if you can.
J: Put it back in the socket it came from and try to keep the root alive, hospital as soon as possible.
- Justin: When do we need to clear everyone off the ice?
A: Blood on the ice, or if there is an injury where you need to get them off the ice.
J: Blood on the ice, or if the injury requires attention.

IT Officer

Joe Cridge

Second year Physics, Keble. I've been Publicity Officer so I've done quite a lot of this job since the last rep disappeared after the AGM. I've done the website and written the app for timing/organising the sessions. I would like to improve the app by adding the ability to add/remove teams on the fly and log how many teams we have at different points. I'd like to add a basic scoring mechanism so that we can find out who wins/loses, like at cuppers. This would be fun towards the end of the year when we have well formed teams. The committee page on the website has a lot of information about the committee and I would like to expand that to make it clear and include minutes etc. and would make passing on to the next committee easier.

Theo Costain

First year engineering, St Anne's. The process of scanning everyone in at the start of ALTS is very inefficient, I'd like to automate the process to speed it up to about a quarter of the time it takes now. We would have accurate statistics of how many people and who turns up, and there is even the possibility of saying who is going to come/organising teams beforehand (this is very hypothetical). I have built several websites and currently manage one with a small user base.

Questions

- Cameron: The reason we swapped to the primitive spreadsheet was to make it easy to swap from committee to committee and it was a pain to fix. We switched to Excel as it is simple. How can you ensure your web based thing won't fuck up?

T: We could host it online or on a Raspberry Pi and can run a backup to Google Docs. In terms of reliability, if it's well written the long term survivability is there and as long as the manager doesn't die it is fairly reliable.

J: I'd like to look at the Java thing from before, but before we couldn't access the data.

(Adrian said that the reason we were forced to make the switch was that Java had problems and sports fed asked every society to keep a list of members and extracting from Java was a nightmare, so switching to Excel was the easiest solution. Cameron added that it was a workaround which worked.)

T: We could have my idea on the secretary's computer and open it in Excel.

- Cameron: Favourite programming language?

T: Haskell.

J: Python for some things but Java because it is cross platform.

- Stephen: How easy is it to pass your ideas on if there was no IT rep?

T: Can save mine on a pendrive.

J: You can save it standalone anywhere on a computer, would do the same for coppers program and Java thing if I did it.

– Sean: We’ve had joint reps before, could we do that this time?

J: We’re doing different things but it could be beneficial.

Guy: Would it be a problem if there was only one rep in the future?

Both: We comment our code.

Music Rep

Tom Grunshaw

First year Chemist, Exeter. I’d use Spotify. I’m a music lover so you’ll get a mix of alt-pop and indie. I’ve been coming to all Fridays, most Wednesdays as well. If I don’t come then it can all be done on my laptop and lent to someone to bring along.

Daniel de Wijze

First year Earth Science at St. Hugh’s. Music isn’t essential but I think it’s important for a good atmosphere. I am familiar with the box and in terms of music I’d do alt-rock, indie, classic rock and pop. I can add songs into the playlist on the night and do theme nights if there is interest.

Questions

- Tom Langton: We did it dually last year, would you consider that?
D: Could do that.
- Tom Langton: How often are we going to be Rickrolled?
(The main response was basically: “As little as possible”.)
- Tom Langton: What about the music form on the website?
D: Could do it on the night.
T: Requests on email probably easiest.
- Stephen: “Timber”²? How many times a week?
D: Never.
T: Rarely.
[This divided opinion. TP]
- Guy: Rate the song “Bump N’ Grind” out of ten.
Both: Bad.
- Cameron: Return to old form of last year’s music where I loved to hate it all? Shit music all the time?
T: It can happen.
D: We can have a cheese playlist.
- Theo: What are you going to use to play the music?
D: Laptop, easiest.
- Dan: What is your favourite nineties boyband?
D: Busted? Is that too recent, Westlife?
T: Nirvana (It was suggested that this was not a boyband.)
- Justin: Favourite song?
T: Impossible decision, maybe “Modern Way” by Kaiser Chiefs.
D: “The Suburbs” by Arcade Fire at the moment.

Thomas Player

I know the Publicity Officers from last year so I know what the job involves. I would email JCRs before next year in order to make sure they get ALTS on their Freshers' Weeks schedules as an alternative to club nights. I know how to publicise since I publicise my own business. [I probably said other things but it's quite hard to minute your own speech. TP]

Questions

- Tom Langton: Do you know how to do freeze motion in photos?
T: No, but I take it you do? So I'm sure you can help me.
- Stephen: Do you have a camera?
T: Yes, but it's not great. I could borrow one off people I know with good cameras.
- Caitlin: How would you get people interested in Hilary?
T: We could try to get articles in student newspapers/their online blogs. We could also put up posters in different colleges. Lots of people come to ALTS with only one or two people from some colleges; we could try to get them to bring more.

Require that the committee get their own sticks in Trinity

Proposed by Tom Langton

It was suggested by Tom Langton that it would be worth suggesting that all committee buy their own sticks by Trinity so that there is not a shortage of sticks. Several people suggested this would be unfair as the new committee had just been voted in and they did not know they would have to spend this money. Cameron suggested we could say committee should buy their own sticks but it would be unfair to force them to. Stephen said that we do have enough sticks to run three games at the moment, but that some will break.
